

Farmers Must Have Storage on Price Control

Owing to the shortage of eligible warehouse storage for all grains, farmers who wish to take advantage of the support prices on grain sorghums will need to make their own plans for storage.

The Government support on the price is available in two ways. The regular Commodity Credit Corporation loans which are made at 90% of parity on both wheat and grain sorghum. The other method, that may be used by farmers who do not want to use the loan, is what is known as the Purchase Agreement. This Purchase Agreement is nothing more than an offer on the part of Commodity Credit Corporation to buy the grain during the month of May, 1949, provided the owner does not find a better market before that time and provided he has signed a purchase agreement and paid the fee before December 31, 1948. In the case of loans the loan rate is established on the class and grade of the grain at time loan is made. In the case of purchase agreements the rate is established on class and grade at time of delivery, if grain is sold to Commodity Credit Corporation. There is no obligation to deliver either grain sorghum or wheat under the purchase agreements. In all cases title to grain remains in farmers' hands and final settlement is made on class and grade delivered. The Government assumes no obligation for keeping grain in condition or for sampling, except to establish grade in case of loans on farm storage.

To insure safe keeping of grain sorghum on the farm it should be stored in good storage with the moisture content well below 12%. It is often very hard to get grain sorghum, which is cut with combine, dry enough to insure safe keeping in farm storage. Some farmers are considering harvesting with binders and drying the grain in the shock. This method generally insures a better grade and safer storage.

The purchase certificate method may be used to support the price of grain sorghum in the shock even if it has not been threshed by December 31 which is the last day for completion of loans and to secure purchase agreements.

The fees charged by Commodity Credit Corporation for the Purchase Agreements are 1/2¢ per bushel on wheat with a minimum charge of $1.50 and on grain sorghum the fee is 1¢ per hundred pounds with the same minimum.

The support price is the same for loans or purchase agreements. The Randall county rate on wheat is $1.95 per bushel basis No. 1. The rate for grain sorghum is $2.19 per hundred in warehouse storage and $2.28 in eligible farm storage basis No. 2 or better.

Local Red Cross Service Record Continues High

The quarterly report of the services of the Local American Red Cross show that the service record of the local chapter is being kept at a high rate by a few faithful workers who have never let down during war or peace.

In June two Gray Ladies did 27 1/2 hours work. Miss Novella Goodman, Barbara Beck and Sarah Jane Martin attended the National convention in San Francisco. Notes of thanks from the three have been received by the Chapter, Mrs. Grace Knighton.

One Gray Lady served 22 hours in July. On July 14th Randall County Chapter gave a party for patients at the Veterans Hospital in Amarillo. Twenty-six women from five Home Demonstration Clubs furnished twenty-six home made cakes. Games were played in the 4 wards and prizes were awarded. Dixie Cups, furnished by the A.R.C. were served with the cake. Canyon was credited with 63 hours for this service.

To date during August one Gray Lady has served 12 hours. On August 13th The Randall County Chapter helped with the first Annual Carnival given the patients of the Amarillo Veterans Hospital. Civic organizations and the North Plains Council of A.R.C. (nine counties)—Armstrong, Deaf Smith, Swisher, Hutchinson, Potter, Randall, Ochiltree, Gray and Donley. The A.R.C. furnished 3 booths, refreshments, prizes and entertainment. The entertainment from Randall County was given by Alice Jean Gill and Wayne Griffin who played for the patients in the wards and for the boys who attended the carnival which was set up on the lighted ball park. The five cakes requested from Randall County at this time were furnished by members of the Eastern Star.

Comfort items and prizes are furnished the hospital as needed by all 9 counties of the North Plains Council.

All news items for next week's paper should be turned in early. It is a very hard job to compile a special edition, and takes much time. Next week's issue will be distributed to all advertisers. The edition will be on sale at 15 cents per copy, by mail the price will be 20 cents each.

Randall County Was 30th In the State on Bonds

According to the detailed report on sale of Savings Bonds, Randall county stood 30th in the State of Texas. According to the report, Randall sold $139,886.25 in Savings Bonds, or a percentage of 116% above the quota set.

Practically all of the counties having a higher percentage were in West Texas. The best record in the state was set by Borden county, with a record of 560.8%.

Fifty-five counties in Texas made better than 100% on Savings Bond sales.

Due to the fact that practically all of the large counties of the State fell down on their sale, Texas did not make a favorable showing. Two counties sold only 1% of their quotas.

Canyon Received Heavy Rains Over the Week End

Rains in Canyon during the past week brought moisture to the amount of 2.37 inches.

The first rain fell on last Wednesday night, which was only a shower of .03 of an inch. This shower was followed by .23 of an inch on Thursday night.

Rain really poured down Friday night when 1.11 inches of moisture fell in Canyon.

This was followed by an inch of rainfall during Saturday night.

The feed crop, pastures and gardens have never looked more beautiful than they are right now. A few weeks ago the pastures were brown, and getting short. The rains have remedied this condition. One of the greatest feed crops in the history of Randall county will be harvested this fall, which will insure plenty of feed for the cattle. This feed will be greatly needed in West Texas counties below the Plains where rain is still lacking and feed crops are reported to be very short.

Rains Interfered With Clean Up in Canyon This Week

Due to so much rain over the week end, the Clean Up Campaign scheduled for this week has been greatly handicapped.

The fogging machine came from Amarillo Saturday morning and went over most of the town. However the heavy rain Saturday night probably killed a large part of the results of this fogging.

Weeds are growing rapidly, and citizens are urged to cut their weeds as quickly as possible in order to hold down the chance for polio.

Radio Executive Gave Classification Talk at Rotary Club

Aubrey Jackson, of KGNC of Amarillo, talked Tuesday at the Rotary Club luncheon on the radio business in a classification talk. He was introduced by Clarence Thompson.

Jackson traced the development of radio from the day of the little local station, with small time programs, through the development of the radio chains, to the present time.

He presented a huge volume of rules and regulations which are issued by the Federal Communications Commission to regulate stations. In order to secure a permit, the proposed station must find a clear channel; be morally and financially responsible; and show by its proposed programs a local need. As of August 1st there were 2038 radio stations in operation, and 1011 FM stations. Television has not come to this section but is growing.

While stations are licensed for three years, the permit may be cancelled upon any infraction of the rules.

Well established stations give free time to religious services from recognized ministerial organizations. Political broadcasts have first calls upon the time of stations. Emergency announcements may be cut into any program.

While many stations complain at government regulations, they are generally for the public's good.

J. B. Linn, "Uncle Jay" was introduced and razzed the speaker for a few minutes.

Visitors were: Bill Dawes of Big Spring; Dr. Harlan Tarbell of Elmhurst, Ill.; Dr. Leo Duflet of Canyon; J. H. Patton of Hereford; E. Kancher, Arch Hunsley and A. D. Foreman of Amarillo.

Dr. Condon Gets No Information on Work of Selective Service

Dr. S. H. Condon went to Hereford Wednesday afternoon to attend a meeting of the new four-county Selective Service Board. S. O. Wilson, Deaf Smith county representative, and Dr. Condon were the only members to show up. Neither Castro nor Parmer county was represented at the meeting, therefore no business was transacted.

Dr. Condon stated that he has received little information regarding the new draft, and has not been officially notified of his appointment.

He has made arrangements with the Commissioners Court to use the room of this court for registration in Canyon. Randall county boys will start registering there on Aug. 30.

The new law provides that all men between 18 and 25 years of age must register unless they are now in the armed forces. Those who have had military training or are in the National Guard will be deferred automatically. But all within this age range must register.

Hail centered at the Arthur Olson farm a week ago Saturday night, doing much damage to fruit, garden and the feed crop. The hail did damage at the Harley Burrus and Wilson Campbell places in the same storm.

Mrs. Olson stated that she lost all of the fruit on the trees, and that the feed crop was badly damaged by the storm. Mrs. Olson's family has lived on this place, north of Canyon, since 1911 and this was the first destructive hail storm to hit.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

Citizens of Randall county are reminded that they have a political job to perform on August 28. We have important political jobs to be filled, which should enlist the hearty cooperation of all citizens of Randall county. In political battles, we usually get all hot and bothered when there are a lot of candidates for public office. In the coming election the people of Randall county as a whole have only two selections. They will vote on United States Senator and on County Treasurer. Both of these offices are important, so important, indeed, that each qualified voter of Randall county should go to the polls. The people of Precinct No. 1 will select a County Commissioner. This is one of the most important offices in Randall county, and careful consideration should be given to the man who will represent the people of this precinct; spend their tax money; look after their public affairs during the coming two years. The News hopes that each and every qualified voter of Randall county will take the time to go to the polls and express their preference on the candidates who are on the official ballot for the second primary. We have a patriotic job to be done on August 28; so let's not shirk our duty.

A delegation of Tucumcari citizens visited Canyon Thursday at noon. It was one of the hottest days of the season. The crowd was small and the greetings none too enthusiastic. The delegation complained that Canyon gave them a very shabby reception. We admit as much; but noted that the visitors hunted the shade rather than stand out in the sun to see and hear the program. Having been on such trade excursions, and having been received in a very unenthusiastic manner ourselves, we sympathize with the fellows who were in charge of the trippers. Perhaps they went back home declaring to other citizens that Canyon was a "dead" town. Such would be unfortunate. Since this is the second time this summer that Canyon has displayed little enthusiasm toward visitors, we had better wake up and show our guests a little more consideration. We make friends by being friendly.

This is the last week that you will find the state constitutional amendments printed in The News. Have you read these amendments? If not, do not lay the paper aside until you have read all of the amendments. Voters sometimes complain that laws are passed without their knowledge or consent. When constitutional amendments are presented for a vote of the people, every voter has a right to favor or reject such amendment. It is the only chance that each and every one has in passing upon the merits of constitutional laws of the state. Read these amendments, and then study them until the November election when you will have the opportunity to express your opinion.

Texas Republicans are getting pretty far down the line in their political material. They urged Pappy O'Daniel to run for Senator on their ticket. But look out in 1950. Pappy will likely be a candidate for Governor—on the Democratic ticket. Pappy found that he was happier in Austin than he was in Washington. And besides, he was the big duck in the Austin political puddle. He was an unknown in Washington.

Last week The News carried an article showing how much more the money of America buys than does the money of Russians. To make it more concrete, an advertiser compared the price of milk based on the hour's pay of laborers in the two countries. It was graphically shown that American labor buys 18 times as much milk in this country for the hour's labor than the same hour's labor buys in Russia. After this disclosure, do you still think Henry Wallace and his followers have a sound reason for falling under the spell of the Russians? Do you still think that the Russian way of life is superior to the American way?

Last week we received an unsigned letter of complaint regarding the lack of clean-up in Canyon. Attention was called to bad spots in the city. No newspaper will print letters unless they know the writer. However, since the city has undertaken to clean up the town, and is doing all within its power, suppose all citizens get busy first and do their share of this clean up job, and then if the results are not satisfactory, file a written complaint of conditions with the city administration. But we must bear in mind that our city government is limited in resources and there are always several places to spend available money.

The 'Crats are Numerous and Howling For Attention

The 'crats will git you, if you don't watch out! We have all kinds of 'crats in Texas.

The Trumancrats have the best argument at the present time, but believe me, the other 'crats are after the hide of the present occupant of the White House. The merry battle will go on and on.

The Wallacecrats had a big pow-wow in Texas last week. A full ticket was named of state candidates. Here we have a golden opportunity to elect a "real" governor of Texas. The candidate is none other than Herman Wright, the political fireball who made the race for the legislature from this district a few years ago. Wright might have been elected had not the sensible people of the district put on a strenuous campaign at the last minute to defeat him.

For Lt. Governor on the Wallacecrot ticket there is a Negro preacher bidding for the place. Yes, sir, when you have business in Austin you will see a big buck Negro presiding over the Texas Senate—if the Wallacecrats win out in November. Wouldn't Senator Grady Hazlewood enjoy that!

Of course the ticket will get the vote of a few screwball, and the commies of Texas. We shall see just how many there are in Randall county after the ballots are counted in November.

And then we have the Dixiecrats. These boys put on a big show at Houston the other day, and took the Democrats apart. It was a smooth political idea to get the endorsement of the people of Texas. Holding the Dixiecrat convention in Texas will enlist the support of a lot of otherwise cold Democrats, who do not know where to land, politically.

The Trumancrats will have a show of noses in Fort Worth next month when the Democratic State Convention is held. The Dixiecrats will try to take over the convention.

And even the Republicans pulled off a fight in their convention. The Repubs are a hungry bunch after 16 years of political famine. The party has just one thing at stake—patronage. The boys who control after November will dish out the Texas patronage. That's a pretty good stake after all.

The Dixiecrats hope to win enough Southern States to throw the election of the next President and Vice President into the House of Representatives next January. The main objective is the defeat of President Truman, regardless of the results.

Frankly, if we were mad enough at Truman to bolt the ticket in November, we would just go ahead and vote the Republican ticket. Dewey will out-Truman Truman when it comes to so-called Civil Rights. At the same time he is likely to clean up Washington, which all admit would be a fine thing for the nation.

On with the battle! How we do like our politics.

In the July primary, Coke Stevenson led in all but two of the Panhandle counties. There is no reason why he should not lead in all of the counties of the Panhandle in the August election. Coke led in a large percent of the counties of Texas in the first primary. He should receive practically all of the Paddy votes in the August election. With 254 counties in Texas to cover, Governor Stevenson may not be able to get back to the Panhandle. But his friends up this way will not forget his past services, that he performed for them, and the services that he will be able to accomplish in the future. Go to the polls on August 28 and vote to send Coke to the Senate!

We can get all hot and bothered about the way kids in Amarillo perform, destroying property, beating up people and raising hell in general. All of us probably have a sure shot cure. The only thing that seems to be the trouble is that home discipline has broken down, and the kids run wild. This does not apply to all the kids and all of the home in Amarillo. But there are enough of this class to pollute the whole kid population of Amarillo. The situation is serious—very serious indeed—and will take the best minds of Amarillo to deal with the problem.

If polio should strike Canyon, each and every citizen would grab a hoe and rake and get busy cleaning up the town. Some citizens have been doing a fine job in cleaning up, while others have done little or nothing. Polio is no respecter of persons. When it strikes the disease may get some one in your family. Clean up NOW!

WHAT a wonderful word is Life! More abundant do we want it ever to prove. Childhood and youth have so much of the physical strength and buoyancy that we look and marvel at the rich outpouring of their energies, especially as we begin to walk a little more slowly up the street. Then come the years of early maturity when the mental tides are running strong; these are the years of education and of glad enjoyment of the activity of the mind. Study has not yet become "a weariness of the flesh." Splendid as are the physical and the eager mental years, after all they are not the greatest and best. Increasingly we are emancipated from the life of the body with its insistent demands for food and sleep and all the satisfactions of appetite. The life of the mind is proving capable of infinite extension so that men of eighty may go on with the same interests and satisfactions of the earlier years. How important then to give more attention to our reading and thinking habits. They may give life zest and glory even as the evening shadows begin to fall, and we find ourselves peering anxiously through the Gateway to LIFE.

BUT for the deeply religious person LIFE is something even finer than either the physical or the mental; it is life in terms of the spirit, the part that goes on forever. The Gateway to Life will be found by some as they prepare to leave the body and to journey to a Better Country. But the Gospel according to Saint John sets before us the Eternal Life which a man begins to experience today. That we have passed from death unto life is manifested by the fact that we have learned to live with love. "God is love" and His spiritual children share with Him the nobility of the loving life. Today will be for each of us The Gateway to Life if we will throw away hatred and malice and greed and join the Christ in practicing love. For while faith and hope and love belong to the eternal spirits, the greatest of them is love and the best sign of the Abundant Life, or The Eternal Life. Over this sort of spiritual being and doing neither death nor the grave have any power; we have already joined the society of the immortals, through The Gateway to Life.

YOU IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you"—form a combination for good.

Cláudine Foster Bride of Charles Peckenpaugh

In a beautiful home setting on Saturday evening, August 14, Miss Claudine Foster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark A. Foster, became the bride of Charles Peckenpaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben H. Peckenpaugh. Scene of the wedding was the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. R. W. Foster. Vows were spoken before a decorative arch entwined with bronze chrysanthemums and flanked by baskets of salmon colored gladioli. Seven branch candelabra bearing lighted tapers completed the improvised altar arrangement. Rev. Hubert Thomson, pastor of the First Methodist church here, performed the double-ring ceremony.

Introducing the ceremony, Mrs. Lee Foster, aunt of the bride, played "To a Wild Rose" by McDowell, and Miss Bob Ellen Dalluge sang "Because" by D'Harelot, and "You Were Meant For Me", accompanied by Mrs. Foster. Traditional wedding marches were also played by Mrs. Foster.

Candlelighters were Miss Bobbye Foster, sister of the bride, who was dressed in white with gold accessories, and Miss Nell Peckenpaugh, sister of the groom, also dressed in white with silver accessories. Each carried a dainty flower arrangement which was entered with a lighted candle.

Attending her sister as maid of honor, was Miss Mary Sue Foster. Her dress was dark brown faille complimented with accessories of brown and gold, and a corsage of gardenias.

Ring bearer was Miss Sally Foster, age 7, cousin of the bride. Little Miss Foster wore an off-the-shoulder grey corduroy dress complimented by a pink floral coronet in her hair. She carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

Mrs. Donald Olson, sister of the bride, registered the guests.

For her daughters wedding, Mrs. Foster chose a grey satin dress with wine accessories, and her corsage was of gardenias. Mrs. Peckenpaugh, mother of the bridegroom, wore a palomino brown dress with matching accessories, and her corsage was also of gardenias.

Jimmy Hall of Perryton was best man, and Donald Olson, brother-in-law of the bride, and Wendel Peckenpaugh, brother of the groom, were ushers.

Given in marriage by her father, Mark A. Foster, the bride was lovely in a cocoa brown faille suit with dark brown accessories. Her bouquet was of white gardenias atop a white Bible which belonged to her cousin, Sally Foster. Fixed in the bouquet was a handmade lace handkerchief which was carried by her mother at her wedding and also carried by her sister at her wedding.

Scene of the reception which followed was the dining room of Mrs. R. W. Foster's home. The serving table was laid with a white linen cloth and centered with a flower arrangement of pink and white flowers. The three-tiered wedding cake was served by Mrs. Jack London, and Mrs. Herman Hargrove of Perryton, aunt of the groom, presided at the punch service.

After a wedding trip to points in Colorado and New Mexico, the couple will be at home in Canyon.

Mrs. Peckenpaugh is a graduate of Canyon High School and also a graduate of St. Anthony School of Nursing in Amarillo. She is now employed by Dr. R. P. Jarrett of the Medical and Dental Clinic in Canyon.

The bridegroom graduated from Perryton High School, and served three years in the armed forces, both in the United States and in Japan. He is now a student at West Texas State College and will continue his studies during the coming year.

Mrs. Fred Jennings, Sr., and son, Jimmie, of Washington, D. C., arrived Friday for a visit with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jennings, Jr., and son Scott. Mr. Jennings, who is associated with Southern Railway in Washington, D. C., will arrive in about a week.

FACT FABLE

Once upon a time a well-to-do young man was in love. Happily, he was sure this girl loved only him! He decided he'd like to have a nice surprise ready for her before proposing. So he built a nice home and filled her closet with the finest in coats and dresses. Then he bought her a car and put it in the garage. He was so busy winding up this surprise that he hadn't been to see his girl in more than a week, but finally everything was in readiness.

When he went to propose they told him the girl had married another man three days ago!

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION

amending Section 15 of Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas, by adding thereto a provision that the husband and wife from time to time may in writing partition between themselves in severalty or into undivided interests all or any part of their community property, whereupon without prejudice to the rights of existing creditors the portion or interest set aside to each spouse shall be and constitute a part of the separate property of such spouse; further providing that such Constitutional Amendment if adopted shall be self-operative and self-executing; providing for the submission of this Amendment to the voters of this State; prescribing the form of ballot; providing for the proclamation and publication thereof.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

Section 1. That Section 15 of Article XVI of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended so as to read as follows:

"Section 15. All property, both real and personal, of the wife, owned or claimed by her before marriage, and that acquired afterward by gift, devise or descent, shall be the separate property of the wife; and laws shall be passed more clearly defining the rights of the wife, in relation as well to her separate property as that held in common with her husband; provided that husband and wife, without prejudice to pre-existing creditors, may from time to time by written instrument as if the wife were a feme sole partition between themselves in severalty or into equal undivided interests all or any part of their existing community property, or exchange between themselves the community interest of one spouse in any property for the community interest of the other spouse in other community property, whereupon the portion or interest set aside to each spouse shall be and constitute a part of the separate property of such spouse."

This Amendment is self-operative, but laws may be passed prescribing requirements as to the form and manner of execution of such instruments, and providing for their recordation and for such other reasonable requirements not inconsistent herewith as the Legislature may from time to time consider proper with relation to the subject of this Amendment. CRISCO $1.14Early Service at Baptist Church Sun.

Pastor Roy L. Johnson announces that preaching will be at 9:00 Sunday morning, Aug. 22nd, in order that those who desire may also attend the commencement service at the college. On previous occasions the services have been conducted early at the Baptist church and crowds were good.

Summer attendance at the Baptist church is the best for any summer in the life of the church, according to the records. Sunday School average for the eleven Sundays since June 1st is above 400 and Training Union, the meetings for all age groups at 7:00 p.m. each Sunday, has averaged 126 for the same period. Evening preaching attendance is considerably higher than Training Union for many come for this service who miss the early meeting. August completes eight years for the pastor in Canyon, and church workers are striving to make it surpass all other August attendance records.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Crosby and Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Killingsworth have returned from a trip through the West. They went to the coast via Denver and Salt Lake City. Government Cost Higher Than All Others in Nation

The President's message to the special session of Congress dwelt at length on rising prices and the high cost of living. But it did not touch at all on one of the basic reasons for inflation—the high cost of government.

Since 1939, according to government figures, the cost of living has risen 73 per cent. But in the same period the cost of the Federal government has risen 337 per cent—

THE AMERICAN WAY

from less than $9,000,000,000 in 1939 to nearly $40,000,000,000 for the fiscal year of 1948. To put it another way, the cost of government, Federal, state and local, has increased at a rate nearly 4½ times as fast as the cost of living, and taxes now constitute the largest single item in the budget of the American people—larger than the nation's bill for food.

This underlines the folly of trying to find a scapegoat for high prices. They aren't the fault of manufacturers or retailers or any other group. Industry, taking it as a whole, has raised prices reluctantly and only when no other course was possible, because high prices ultimately reduce sales. Our whole government fiscal policy is of a kind that makes more and more inflation inevitable.

It is a gross deception to argue that the cure for higher prices lies in controls and roll-backs to the level of 1946 or some other year. Nothing would do more to discourage production, and to give this country a taste of what a police state is like. No one, whether he be a manufacturer or a storekeeper, can do business at a loss. And nothing in the

CIO Failed In Defeat Favorable Congressman

It should be remembered that when the Taft-Hartley law was passed, the CIO-PAC organization announced that it would fight to defeat every member of Congress who voted for it.

Since that time, 147 members who supported the Act have come up for renomination, and 137 of them have won. And only one of the 10 who lost represented a major northern industrial district, where CIO-PAC supporters are supposed to be strong.

This certainly indicates that the rank and file of union labor, like the rank and file of the voters at large, doesn't servilely follow the orders of the big-shot union officers. And there is plenty of reason why it should not. The leaders denounced the Taft-Hartley Act as a slave labor law, which would make the most ruthless exploitation of the worker both possible and inevitable. Yet what has actually happened?

Some of the principal labor groups have made some of their greatest gains since the law was passed. Soft coal is a prime example. The new contract gives the miners an extremely liberal pension plan. It further increased pay—even though the miners received the highest wage of any comparable group before the new contract. The short working day remains in effect. Every benefit the miners had before the Taft-Hartley Act, was retained, and more are now enjoyed.

Workers in steel, automobile and other big industries have also won new gains. To say that the Taft-Hartley Act has in any way weakened labor is to deny the obvious truth. Apparently the members of Congress who voted for the Taft-Hartley Act benefited labor and the workers know it.

BOYCE HOUSE Gives You Texas

Henry W. Grady, editor of the Atlanta Constitution, was a great orator. His speeches, after the Civil War, helped to bring the North and South together in mutual trust and understanding. He was also a great editor. Just how great let this fact attest: The number of copies of the Atlanta Constitution printed each day was four times as many as the population of Atlanta! Furthermore, a large proportion of the inhabitants of Atlanta were recently-freed slaves and could not read.

The explanation of so large a circulation was that the paper was so well edited that it reached a wide territory. It is said that the law in Texas at that time provided that the newspaper having the largest circulation in the county should be the official newspaper of the county—and in several Texas counties, the official paper was the Constitution which was published in Georgia!

The Civil War general with the oddest name was the Confederate, Brig. Gen. States Rights Gist. "States Rights" was his name. His father, looking forward to the day when that would perhaps be an issue on the battlefield, bestowed the name on him. General Gist was killed in the defense of Vicksburg.

Everyone of course knows about the Unknown Soldier—the hero of World War I whose name is known only to God.

Of the 17,000 Union graves on the beautiful slopes around Vicksburg, three-fourths are the last resting-places of men whose identities are unknown: more than 12,000 "unknown soldiers."

Limited Draft Is Mere Stop- Gap Training

Universal military training did not die at the last session of Congress. It was simply deferred, and the limited draft was enacted as a stop-gap measure. It will be up again next year and, unless there is an amazing change for the better in the international scene, it will stand a better than even chance of enactment. Both President Truman and Governor Dewey have gone unequivocally on record in favor of it. So, whoever wins in November, the head man of the government will be a UMT backer.

The arguments pro and con for compulsory training have been and will be argued fervently. But there is one phase of the problem that has been pretty well overlooked. It is this: if we are to have a really effective military force, whether or not it is based on UMT, the people in uniform will have to be given some incentive, and sold on the idea that they will receive a decent break. At the end of the last war, millions of soldiers, officers included, left the service with the utmost contempt and dislike for the military way of doing things.

This is the theme of an important article in the August Harper's Magazine, written by Robert Wood Johnson. Mr. Johnson is chairman of the board of Johnson & Johnson, the well known surgical supply concern. He served in both world wars, rising to the rank of brigadier general during the second. The core of his idea, as a Harper's editorial note puts it, is that the peacetime army "should be run by men who understand the elementary principles of good management."

Mr. Johnson observes that the traditional military system is to force men to do things. "From this premise," he writes, "grows so much of the dissatisfaction so rampant in the services. Discipline does require authority, especially for the recalcitrant few. But true discipline grows out of confidence in a leader's ability, intelligence, and sense of justice." He cites the fact that progressive industry has learned that the good worker is the man who has pride in his job and a secure sense of his own dignity as an individual. An industrial executive doesn't have to go around loaded with brass and impressive insignia in order to accomplish his duties. And industry has learned that it must give some consideration to the wishes of the people who work for it if the best results are to be obtained.

What this all adds up to, Mr. Johnson thinks, is that the people who run a military force must be experts in personnel, just as are the people who run a successful business. But he realizes that this is nowhere near enough—that men and women must be offered tangible benefits if the military service is to seem attractive as a career. Mr. Johnson cites, for instance, good housing, instead of dreary barracks which typify most army and navy posts. Other factors would be equitably rotated tours of duty, and educational opportunities on a par with those available to civilians.

Of very great importance, he advocates that "there must be a clear channel of promotion from bottom to top." While some reforms have been made, it is evident that promotion in the military services at present is too dependent on the mere fact of seniority—or, worse yet, ability to curry favor with superiors.

Mr. Johnson stirs up a hornet's nest when he advocates the elimination of West Point and Annapolis as they exist today. His basic reason for this is that these institutions "are the fountainhead of the military caste system which dominates the professional officers of both services. This system sets up insurmountable barriers between the enlisted men and an officer aristocracy and teaches blind obedience to the orders of a ruling class. It creates bitterness from one end of the service to the other." As a substitute for the service schools, he advocates that our regular officers should be turned out in the existing civilian education system. To support this, he points to the Marines, whose record as a fighting force is unsurpassed. For the most part, this corps is officered by men who came into it via the ROTC system in the universities.

In conclusion, he writes, "Management is a state of mind. On the one hand, you have management by compulsion, the kind you find in the services today. On the other hand, you have leadership with enthusiastic followers. If enforced military training is allowed to encourage and enlarge upon the malpractices of our present military system, it will weaken our defenses from the top down. It can easily become the Maginot Line of America."

It's a safe bet that the editor of Harper's has been deluged with protesting letters from military men who believe that the present system is the only one. It is only fair to say that some officers with fine records of combat service, such as the late General Patton, were heart and soul for the toughest kind of discipline. Even so, it is difficult to conceive of young Americans going into military service with anything resembling enthusiasm as long as the caste system exists in its current form. And it may well be that this will become one of the big issues when universal military training comes up for consideration.

Townsmen Turn Out To Plug Chuck-Holes

ALEXANDRIA, IND. — Three preachers, two bankers, the mayor and nearly 500 fellow townsmen rolled up their sleeves and put Alexandria's streets back in shape.

They answered an appeal by the Alexandria better business association for volunteer labor to fill what Mayor Guy C. Lewis estimated was "thousands" of chuck-holes.

Men, women and children, led by the shirt-sleeved mayor himself grabbed brooms, shovels and rakes. They spent a day pouring asphalt and smoothing it out.

The street repair problem was the result of conferences between the association and the city administration.

The streets were in such bad shape that they were hardly passable.

But the town fathers said they couldn't afford to furnish the materials and all the labor needed to get the job done quickly.

They agreed to buy the materials if the townspeople would furnish the labor.

All the stores closed except the restaurants and drug stores. Factories continued to operate but dismissed their executives to help with the work.

Among the sweating volunteers were the Reverends H. R. Carson, Robert Nixon and S. E. Mugridge.

Bank Presidents Dane Hoover and Harry Adams pitched in.

Everybody was happy except the police department. It said nobody had been arrested for speeding for months because of the chuck-holes.

Smart Dog Proves That He Has a Mind of His Own

SANFORD, N. C. — Marvin Johnson has an awfully smart dog.

When the deadline for getting dogs vaccinated rolled around, he said he asked his wife in the dog's presence to remind him to have it vaccinated. Both forgot about it.

Later, Johnson's telephone rang and the veterinarian said the dog was waiting to go home and had been vaccinated.

"Who brought him?" Johnson asked, somewhat startled. "No one," said the doctor. "He just dropped by."

Saroyan Wants to Sell Farm—And Make a Good Profit

SAN FRANCISCO. — William Saroyan, the Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright, is trying to sell his 30-acre ranch on the banks of the San Joaquin river near his home of Fresno—in his own way, of course.

"No lies in this ad," reads the heading of the author's classified ad in the San Francisco Examiner. "This property could be described another way but this is the honest way to describe it."

A hilltop on the place is "all hard-pan" and a river bottom "all gravel and rocks."

"No garage, no barn, small pump downhill, probably ought to be replaced, 500-gallon water tank in basement probably ought to be cleaned."

The heating apparatus is "out of order," Saroyan wrote. There are 50 young olive trees along a road, "but no practical way of watering them."

"Owner only paid $32,000 for property. He is keeping six or seven acres for himself as a monument to his real estate sharpness. Will sell balance for $35,000."

"If interested," concludes the ad, "have head examined or telephone Fresno 8-8374 and ask for owner's cousin, Ross."

Robber Confesses Hold-Up; Gets Trousseau for Bride

NEW YORK. — Nello Piccin has an offer of a job and a free trousseau for his fiancée because his conscience bothered him.

Piccin got $65 in a robbery with a wooden gun. He wanted the money for his fiancée's trousseau. But his conscience began to bother him. He confessed to his fiancée and they went together to a priest. The priest advised Piccin to give himself up.

Later a grand jury refused to indict him for the robbery, an electrical company offered him a job and a department store volunteered to give his bride-to-be a complete trousseau.

Cocker Spaniel Gives Birth To Litter of Six on Train

KINGSTON, N. Y. — A cocker spaniel named "Queenie" started across country alone and arrived here with a family of six. They all traveled on her ticket.

"Queenie," owned by Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Slade, started her cross-country trip in the baggage car of a New York Central train at Tacoma, Wash. In Chicago she gave birth to six puppies.

At Albany a baggageman said there was a ticket around "Queenie's" neck stating there would be no extra fare for the pups. Also scrawled on the ticket, he said, was the notation "see that they have everything they need."

The shortest distance between two dates is still a good line.

Colorado Wants Zeb Pike's Bones For Peak, or Bust

COLORADO SPRINGS, COLO.—The war between the city of Colorado Springs and Sackets Harbor, N. Y., over the remains of Zebulon Pike is still going strong.

The latest development was a scornful rejection by Colorado Springs of a Sackets Harbor peace offer. The Upper New York state town has suggested that Colorado Springs accept a small box of earth from Pike's grave and forget about its plan to install the general's remains under a monument on Pike's peak.

Mayor J. N. McCullough of Colorado Springs made the rejection official when he said:

"Pike's peak is a God given monument for the general—and it's the place where he ought to be buried."

Doug Crouch, president of the chamber of commerce, was a little more emphatic.

It's Pike—or Bust

"We want to bring the general home and we don't want any dirt," he said. "The boys set out to get Pike and that's what we're going to do."

The Colorado campaign to remove Pike's remains from the military cemetery at Sackets Harbor where he is buried and give the famed general a final resting place atop the peak he discovered, gathered new momentum with receipt of the Sackets Harbor offer.

The offer of Sackets Harbor earth was made in a letter to the Denver Post from E. W. Dennison, assistant postmaster of the upper New York state town. Dennison sent — under separate cover—a three-inch square box containing a sample of earth he was talking about.

A reporter who looked inside said it appeared that General Pike now was buried under somewhat rocky soil. The sample was full of pebbles.

Secretary Expresses Thanks

Howard N. Yates, secretary of the Colorado Springs chamber of commerce, was the only man in town who even suggested the box of earth might be welcome.

"Tell the man thanks," he asked. "We can plant that as seed and orient the ground so the general will feel right at home when he gets here."

Yates said he was sure the Pike monument plan would proceed and predicted the army soon would okay the move.

Crouch regarded the Sackets Harbor letter as "an insult however. That guy is trying to be funny," he said. "It's silly to think we'd take dirt instead of bones."

But it wasn't funny to Asst. Postmaster Dennison of Sackets Harbor, who wrote the letter and sent the box.

"Anything we can do to help Colorado we are willing to do—except to surrender the remains of Gen. Pike," he said. "We are a little hamlet, but we hold to our historical past and we want the general here, because he sailed from here to his death at the battle of York."

Dennison added a P. S. to his letter. "I was in Denver 40 years ago," it said. "The only activity I saw was Market street."

Contractor Agitates Paint With Wife's Washing Machine

TRENTON, N. J.—Thanks to his wife's washing machine, a Trenton contractor is putting a new coat of paint on the 720-foot Delaware river bridge between Milford, N. J., and upper Black Eddy, Pa.

The Delaware river joint toll bridge commission hired Dewey D'Agostino to paint the super-structure, specifying that the paint must be mixed daily by an agitator. But agitators, D'Agostino found, are not to be had.

D'Agostino, who once had to find a non-union midget to paint the understructure of another bridge, applied his ingenuity and appropriated his wife's washing machine. The job is proceeding on schedule.

What of Mrs. D'Agostino? "It cost me $400 for a new machine for her," D'Agostino said.

Picture Shows Woodrow Wilson Liked Nicknames

MIDDLETOWN, CONN.—Woodrow Wilson, like President Roosevelt, apparently liked to tag his associates with nicknames.

Such sobriquets as "Redhead," "Winch," "Van Benny," "Our Bobs," and "Little Billee," were conferred by the scholarly Wilson on men with high sounding titles and degrees who served with him on the Wesleyan university faculty. That was back in the '80s.

The nicknames appear in Wilson's handwriting above each faculty member on a composite picture just discovered by the university. Wilson designated himself "Woodrow."

At the bottom he wrote: "The faculty with less deadwood than any faculty of my acquaintance. Woodrow Wilson."

The composite picture was among a group of Wesleyan photographs donated to the university by George W. Davison, New York banker, a Wesleyan alumnus and trustee.

Controls Will Not Increase Meat Supply

There has been an increasing amount of talk, much of it politically inspired, about an alleged need for rationing meat and controlling the price by governmental fiat. Inasmuch as that will be one of the major domestic issues of the year, the public should have a sound knowledge of the facts.

First of all, controls of any kind could not increase the aggregate supply of meat by a single pound. The remedy to the meat situation lies in the production of sufficient meat animals to handle today's tremendous demand.

What controls would do—precisely as they did in the past—would be to drive large quantities of meat into the black market. All of us can remember the OPA days when "No Meat Today" signs were common in retail stores. It would happen again.

Most important of all, the strong probability is that rationing and other artificial controls would discourage the production of meat animals by livestock growers. They would have no assurance that they would be able to sell their stock for a price that would meet costs, much less return a profit for the work and the risk and the investment involved. Then there would be less meat for everyone, the available supply would bring extortionate prices in the black market, and, in addition, the chances are that a serious grain surplus would be created.

No one knows what the future course of meat prices or any other prices will be, but we do know that artificial price and rationing controls are much like the process of tinkering with a thermometer—the basic situation is not corrected. In a free market prices are fixed by supply and demand—not by some bureaucrat's idea of what they should be. Furthermore, in a free market they are the lowest prices possible under the conditions of the moment.

Mortality Rates Among Infants At Low Rate

Infant and mortality rates in Texas are at their lowest level in the history of the state, according to figures released by the Bureau of Vital Statistics of the State Health Department. Infant mortality has reached a low of 41.2 deaths for every 1000 live births.

Compared to the figures for 1940, this represents a reduction of more than 39 per cent. In that year, there were 197,023 live births and 8,685 deaths. But despite these gains, Texas still has the sixth highest infant mortality rate in the United States, with forty-two states reporting lower rates.

ficer, attributes the reduction to the increase in public response to the educational efforts of the Texas State Department of Health.

"We have reason for pride in our reduced infant and maternal mortality when it is realized that the reduction means in excess of 5,000 babies are being saved annually which would have otherwise died," Dr. Cox said. "In addition, the birth rate is higher than the 1940 figure by more than 71,000."

The comparison between the live births figures for 1940 and 1947, shows white births up 22,707; Latin American births up 7,186; and Negro births up 3,297.

The report also shows maternal mortality has been reduced over 65 per cent. In 1940, the rate was 4.6 for every 1000 live births as compared to 1.6 for 1947.

"Service is fine on this party line!"

Once upon a time (and it wasn't so long ago) there were some neighbors on a telephone party line. Everything was all right, except when anyone wanted to use the line it seemed someone else was always using it.

PLEASE, MY LITTLE GIRL'S SICK

One day Mrs. White, one of the neighbors on the line, had to call a doctor in a hurry. Someone was using the line. Mrs. White hesitated, then broke right in . . .

"Please," she said, "my little girl's sick. May I have the line to call a doctor?"

"Oh, yes," said the others, and hung right up.

A short time later, Mrs. White called the person she had interrupted. "I'm sorry I had to interrupt," she said, "but it was an emergency."

"That's perfectly all right," said the neighbor, "and I have an idea about this party-line business. Most of our calls aren't too important. Why don't we all agree when any one of us has an important call that we will ask for the line?"

"That's a wonderful idea," said Mrs. White.

So they all agreed, and service on that party line has been fine ever since.

Socialism Must Grow or Die Is Warning Given

In a sermon at solemn mass in St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York City, Father Thomas F. Maher gave a strong warning that socialism imperils our liberties. "In our own country," he said, "we have seen, in the past twenty years, an era of increasing government ownership of power plants, transportation and other utilities. In England, mines, banking and railroads have been taken over by the state. In France, all railroads are now government property. One of the most important issues of our day, with increased governmental ownership and regulation of property, is whether or not perfect political liberty can survive when economic liberty is sharply restricted. . . . The Principles of democracy would best be served not by state monopoly but by an ever widening extension of ownership to more and more individuals."

Perhaps the most suicidal of illusions is that we have "some socialism" and at the same time preserve unimpaired our social and political freedom. No nation in the history of the world has even managed to accomplish that. The present course of England is particularly illuminating. A short time ago a measure called the "Town and Country Planning Act" went into effect. This gives the government control over all improvements made by land owners, and permits it to confiscate any gain in value that results. According to the Chicago Daily News, the act "is frankly regarded by leaders of the party in power as a half-way step to the outright ownership of all British land by the government."

Socialism, like a fungus, must grow or die. When, to take a typical example, we allow the government to go into the power business it is doing far more than simply socializing one piece of private property. It is undermining the political system upon which this country was built. It is laying the groundwork upon which dictators come to power.

Elsewhere in his sermon, Father Maher warned that "in the misuse of private property, there are grievous sins against social justice and individual charity." One of the greatest achievements of the free enterprise system is that these sins constantly diminish both in number and magnitude. The irrefutable weight of public feeling is the soundest remedy for injustice. Under socialism, with its all-powerful state, it takes a revolution to unseat a corrupt and ruthless government. All recorded history provides the proof of that.
